

The Upper Room

An evening in a beautiful space - art, music, reflection and food!

*The Upper Room by Chris Ofili is a C21st reworking of The Last Supper

Wednesday April 12th is a time to gather around the fire and enjoy the beautiful ambient space created especially by participants of Breathing Space Easter Arts Workshop. The space will be inspired by Chris Ofili's Upper Room in the Tate Britain and set in our very own Mongolian style Yurt!

The Upper Room is based around a story where hospitality is shared with friend and enemy alike until all such distinctions dissolve.

Stories on the themes of hospitality and friends and enemies will be told by experienced storytellers, drummers will drum and all creative or thoughtful contributions are welcome.

When: 7:00pm – 9:30pm Wednesday 12th April
Venue: The Yurt, 28 Abbotts Rd, New Barnet, Herts EN5 5DP
RSVP: bspace@btconnect.com or phone Amanda / Rob 020 84418903

No charge – donations welcome.

Please bring:

- something hospitable to eat or drink
- a story, piece of music, object, photo, anything that represents the theme for you
- or just yourself!

“Human beings are more alike than unlike” Maya Angelou

www.breathingspacearts.co.uk

